

WANTED: People interested in Buckeye's future

Do you want to have a stake in Buckeye's future? Is your group interested in giving town officials its input on the town's new strategic plan? Then you want to contact the people from "We Are Buckeye."

Hank Pasinski, a spokesman for the more than three dozen residents working to lay the groundwork for a comprehensive strategic plan for Buckeye, told the Town Council that the group has worked hard to develop interview questions that would provide insight into Buckeye's stakeholders' dreams for the town.

"We want to interview as many citizens as possible from as many different areas as possible," Pasinski told town officials. "The wider range of respondents, the more meaningful and accurate the results would be."

While the We Are Buckeye committee has done much since first being formed last September, "much more needs to be done," Pasinski said.

"We must continue to identify and interview stakeholders, we need to reach stakeholders who have not responded and we need to recruit new people to help us with the interviews."

That's where you come in. If you are a member of any group, large or small – an HOA, a service club, a school PTO, a church group or a leader of a youth organization – call the We Are Buckeye hot line – 623-349-6349 and leave a message or send an email to wearebuckeye@buckeyeaz.gov and leave your contact information.
